There were numerous conferences on the floor of the Senate today among Democratic senators. Senators Carmack, Simmons, Clay, Bacon, Blackburn, Dubois, Patterson and others were engaged in reviewing the situation and the poll was commented upon.

It was observed that the facts were directly in line with the information which had been given by August Belmont at the conference on Friday.

Mr. Belmont's information had been furnished from sources which might be termed of partisan character; that is to say, his reports emanated from Parker sources and reflected Parker obsevations.

your Peruna as a substantial tonic and a good catarrh remedy?'-

What used to be called female diseases by the medical profession is now called polvic catarrii. It has been found by experience that catarrhal diseases of the pelvic organs are the cause of most cases of female diseases.

Dr. Hartman was among the first of America's great physicians to make this discovery. For 40 years he has been treating diseases pecular to women, and long ago he reached the conclusion that a woman entirely free from catarrhal affection of these organs would not be subject to female disease. He therefore began using Peruna for these cases and found it so admirably adapted to their permanent cure that Peruna has now become the most famous remedy for female disease, ever known. Everywhere the women are using it and praising it. Peruna is not a palliative simply; it cures by removing the cause of female disease.

Dr. Hartman has probably cured more women of female ailments than any other living physician. He makes these cures simply by using and recommending Peruna. writes:
"I was a terrible sufferer from female weakness and had the headache continuously. I was not able to do my housework for myself and husbard. I wrote you and described my condition as near as possible. You recommended Peruna. I took four bottles and was completely cured. I think Peruna a wonderful medicine."—Mrs. Esther M. Milner.

Laffle was picked up and taken to the City Dispensary, and was afterwards taken to the City Hospital. There he is now recovering from the effects of the drug.

Saturday morning Mrs. Laffle, who owns a half interest in a restaurant at 215 North Eighteenth street, left presumably for that establishment, taking with her 30.

She did not return that night, and her husband at once started to search for her. He returned home and spent a sleepless night. When he arose this morning his mind was dazed. He went out and bought the laudanum and swallowed the whole amount after returning home.

Just as he was beginning to be drowsy a messenger boy brought a telegram from his wife in Chicago, reading:

'No money. Send me railroad ticket, care Union Depot.

Laffle had presence of mind enough to swallow a hastily made cup of coffee, and transportation to his wife.

He got on the car about 6 o'clock, and from the effects of the laudanum his actions appeared to be those of a drunken man. At Franklin avenue he was put off the car, but he started staggering down Eighteenth street toward the station, determined to reach there before conquered by the drug.

The fresh air revived him somewhat, but he was barely able to give directions regarding his wifes ticket and to leave the station before he fell in a faint.

As they sat in the detention room at the Four Courts Tuesday morning, Harry said, We had a mighty good time, and we ough n't to kick because the copper pinched us for taking the horse and buggy." Morris was inclined to cry. He wished that he had gone to school and had been a good boy.

The boys met on their way to school

Morris thought the suggestion a good one and they came downtown looking for transportation. William Ratigan's horse and buggy were standing at the curb, and they took them. The left the City Hall and drove until 10:30, when they drew up to the curb at the Crawford Theater looking for a livery stable. A policeman answered their inquiries and questioned them, with the result that Morris broke down. Both boys say they visited the World's Fair, drove around the outside and then through Forest Park and back downtown. They will be sent to the Juvenile Court.

THE VALUE OF ADVERTISING. General Manager of United Drug Co. Tells What Newspapers Have Done for Rexall Remedies.

"Newspaper advertising is so valuable that I can see no sense in wasting time discussing the subject," said Louis K. Liggett, general manager of the United Drug discussing the subject," said Louis K. Liggett, general manager of the United Drug Company, recently.

"It must be intelligently used," he added, "but newspaper advertising is as essential to the manufacturer of a proprietary medicine as food is to the human body."

The remarkable success of the Rexall remedies handled by the United Drug Company testifies to the extent Mr. Liggett has carried his belief in the value of newspaper advertising. Mr. Liggett is author of the Rexall plan whereby only one druggist in each city is allowed to become a stockholder of the United Drug Company and is given exclusive sale in his community of Rexall goods, receiving the full benefit of the advertising.

One hundred and fifty Rexall remedies are put on the market, all of which are carried by the Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., which is the local representative of this great company, and more are in the course of preparation.

After Mr. Liggett's record-breaking sale of $99,000 worth of Rexall Mucu-Tone to the stockholders of the United Drug Company in September, 1903, an advertising campaign was begun which has resulted in making Mucu-Tone in a few months one of the leading catarrh curse of the country. The same success accompanied his efforts with Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. Other remedies are in course of preparation by the Rexall until there will be "one for each human II," the Rexall laboratory specialists estimating that there are about 300 ills.

Miss Nettie Plackmore, Minneapolis, tells how any young woman may be permanently cured of monthly pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Young Women:—I had frequent headaches of a severe nature, dark spots before my eyes, and at my menstrual periods I suffered untold agony. A member of the lodge advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but I only scorned good advice and felt that my case was hopeless, but she kept at me until I bought a bottle and starfed taking it. I soon had the best reason in the world to change my opinion of the medicine, as each day my health improved, and finally I was entirely without pain at my menstruation periods. I am most grateful."—NETHE BLACK-MORE, 28 Central Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.—$5000 farfett if original of above letter procing gamineness cannot be produced. "Young Women: - I had frequent Marion, Callaway, Macon and Nodaway Counties have decided to hold primaries instead of mass conventions—another victory for the Folk supporters. The Callaway County committee refused to grant this request a month ago.

If Mr. Folk wins eight counties Saturday he will have to his credit an aggregate of 125 uncontested delegates, or just 15 more than Hawes. 33 more than Reed and 126 more than Gantt, who has not yet carried a township.

LEFT $500,000 TO TEACHER. John Sullivan's Relatives, However, Are Contesting Will.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—Judge J. W. Robertson of Washington applied to United States Circuit Judge Morrow today to hear the argument on his application to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for United States Circuit Court of Appeals for a writ of habeas corpus on behalf of himself and Marie Carrav. Judge Morrow continued the case to May 9.

Judge Hanford of Seattle found Robertson and Miss Carrav gulity of contempt for violating his order prohibiting them from setting up any claim under nuncupative will of John Sullivan deceased, in any court except an Appellate Court of the United States.

Sullivan left a will bequeathing the bulk of his estate, valued at $500,000, to Miss Carrav, who had been his teacher in the French language.

Relatives of Sullivan are contesting the will.

NEW YORK, April 5.-A movement to NEW YORK, April 5.—A movement to found the Poe Society, whose object shall be to provide a suitable Edgar Allan Poe Memorial and to perpetuate his fame, has been inaugurated here. Those in charge of the matter have arranged for a theatrical benefit, to be held April 23 for the purpose of creating a nucleus of the fund. Several speakers, including descendants of the poet, now residing in Baltimore, discussed his life and works.

POST-DISPATCH DAILY RECORD OF DOINGS IN MARKET AND FINANCIAL WORLD GAIN FOR DAY, ON ACTIVE MARKET

Wall Street Market Was Active, With Heavy Trading in Only Two Issues Were Traded in at St. Louis and Minneapolis Break Val-Union Pacific, Steel Preferred and Atchison, Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK. April 5.—The market opened with fair activity this morning, the price thanges, with the exception of Union Pacific being narrow and somewhat irregular. Longon, after a holiday since Thursday, showed but slight changes from the close of that day and little interest manifested in our stocks. Foreign orders at the opener amounted to only about $800 shares. Consols were strong and advanced 3-16. The sources of the Union Pacific buying is as much a mastery as ever. Just who is back of the myrement is hard to tell, but the houses tight have been handling the buying orders are those that usually represent large interests.

The decision against People's Gas is considered one that is very unfavorable to the pompany and the stock was sharply

The market continued active during the most of the morning and substantial gains were made all down the list. Union Pacifice recovered the opening loss and sold up to 83%. Pienty of tips were affoat that the stock would touch par and the commission buying in this issue was better than for a long time.

A decrease in the Bank of England rate of discount is-confidently expected tomorrow. Funds are more plentiful there and some of the foor traders reason that a lessening of the foreign interest rate will stimulate speculation in that market.

Rock Island was more active today and doined in the general upward movement, the dealings, however, being mainly between floor traders.

Amalgamisted was pushed up to 50% and Anneonda gained 2½. United States Steel preferred, which was under rather continuous presser learlier, suddenly moved its rise to 2 points and Reality preferred about a point. Colorado Fuel increased its rise to 2 points and Reality preferred about a point. Colorado Fuel increased its rise to 2 points and Reality preferred saids. Southwestern preferred gained about a point. Colorado Fuel increased its rise to 2 points and Reality preferred about a point. Colorado Fuel increased its rise to 2 points and Reality preferred southed 51%, a gain of 3%. Realising went or in the ratiroads and tractions under cover of this strength, Union Pacific was feverish.

About 2000 shares of Northern Securities and Metropolitan Street Railway failing back a point and some others large fracture from the market was suggested in the other merger stocks, except the occasional sale of an odd lot.

Trading interest was attracted to the local tractions by the simultaneous execution of buying orders in these stocks. The

"We all know that Postum is a sunshine maker. I find it helps one greatly for we do not have to think of aches and pains all the time and can use our minds for other things." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The one who has to bother with coffee aches and pains is bally handicapped in the race for fame and fortune. Postum is a wonderful rebuilder. There's a reason. Look in each pkg. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

It the time you need for steadying yourself and getting alm. Where the catcher comes most into play is in his work in connection with the pitcher. He is nearest the batter and can best note his weaknesses. Also, when he signs to the pitcher. He is going up, and take positions accordingly.

Giving the signs, the catcher must be a man of good judgment and observation. In directing the pitcher he is therefore virtual guider of the fate of the game.

TRICKS ARE EFFECTIVE.

Many effective tricks can be worked up between the catcher and the rest of the infield, and the pitcher.

The catcher should be a good hitter, as Our Ready-to-Wear Apparel is mod-led on lines that are absolutely correct Faultless in style and fit, they are good mough for the most refined tastes. One thing is asked of a catcher that no other player is called upon to show to the same degree-grit. Crossing homeplate

Naturally, the plays are more desperate there and the catcher holding his ground is going to get hard knocks and possibly worse. The catcher who tries to save himelf at the plate is the man who usually ets hurt in a mix-up.

Here, too, the art of bluffing is necessary Catchers sometimes pretend the ball is a mile off, as the runner comes home when in reality the throw is almost in their hands. This occasionally keeps the runner from sliding and gives the catcher a fraction of a second more time to put the ball on him.

Remember this little point: "Don't make your pitcher work by returning the ball carelessly or hard. In the former case the pitcher has to chase it; in the latter he is liable to injure a finger.

Can you spell Egg-O-See $1,000 IN CASH

Anyone can compete and all have an equal chance of securing one of the big prizes.

The only conditions are that you send in for each five different ways of spelling the word Egg-O-See, one of the little folders, same as used in the school children's contest, found inside of each package of the food, and that you mail your list to the Egg-O-See Co., Quincy, Ill., on or before June 15, 1904.

Be sure and write your name and address plainly. The spelling must be such as could properly be pronounced "Egg-O-See."

The following are some of the ways the word could be spelled:

Egg-O-Sea, Eg-Oh-Cy, Egg-O-Cee, Eg-O-Sie.

Physicians and food experts agree that flaked wheat is the most delicious and healthful of foods. LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Gov. Dockery seems to be at the mourners' bench trying to be converted to the will of the people. The governor wants to put his ear to the ground and listen to the tramp of the honest yeomanry of Missouri as they march in legions to the polis and cast their ballots for that fearless and incorruptible Democrat. Hon. Joseph W. Folk, the next governor of Missouri. The representatives of the people and not the machine will write the next Democratic platform for the party. The St. Louis grandjury's report seems to have disturbed the governor, yet he goes off on a tangent and threatens to call an extra session of the legislature to enact a law requiring home rule for the cities of this statt. The grandjury, composed of the eleven Democrats and one Republican, recommended that the governor appoint nonpartisan police board—the same as the board of education. The governor is chasing a phantom in the shape of home rule. The Democrats of Missouri will never consent nor will they enact into a law what is erroneously termed "home rule." What the grandjury did-recommend was to take the police out of politics, and the governor can easily do this by following the suggestions of the grandjury. He can apply the remedy at once and not do as a cuttle fish, which muddles the water to conceal his position.

the in our offices, counting houses and manufactories, usurping the place of man. She is becoming an independent and not a dependent creature."

Another article in the same journal tries to prove that there will be no women in heaven. Now, let all sides be heard, that we may know where we stand.

The first subject has been much discussed by the laity as well as by the profession. The guns of the race-suicide army are turned upon the independent woman, and she is told that she must marry and raise a family, whether she wishes or not—she "owes it to the nation."

It matters not that she is earning a living for herself and probably for someone else who is dependent upon her. She must give it all up and get married.

If she loves the particular lord of creation who offers himself, all right; if she doesn't love him, she must marry him, anyway—it's her plain duty.

If he is unable to support the numerous progeny with which it is her duty to present him, let her help make up the deficit by taking in sewing or washing—it's her duty.

If they can't raise and educate as they should the first half-dozen, right the wrong by bringing into the world a half-dozen more—it's her duty to the country.

If she is half-starved and wears one hat five years, no matter—she has done her duty.

When she is worn out and looks 25 years older than she is, and her husband seeks a divorce and a young mate—no matter, let her go to the poorhouse, she has done her duty and will get her reward—I was going to say in heaven, but that other article intimates that there will be no women in heaven.

Where, then, will she get her reward? Plainly there is no place in this life for the independent woman. If there is no place in heaven for a woman of any kind, what shall we de?

Strap on Wrist Boy's Fetter.
Then we stopped beside the railroad tracks, and he put down his grip and told me to watch it. He told me he would hit me if I tried to run away. And so I hit me if I tried to run away. And so I stood there. He was gone a long time, and I was alone. When he came back he picked up the grip and made me walk several miles more with him. Then we came to an old stable and went in. I hadn't had anything to eat, and I was so tired I could hardly walk. He put his coat' down on the floor, and I laid down on that. He took a strap and fastened it around my wrist, and tried to fasten the other end about his wrist. But it was too short. So he just held me by the hand so I could not run away. I was scared, for I heard rats and owls and goblins and all those things. But I was so tired and I went to sleep.

Early Sunday morning he woke me up. I was nearly starved, and tired, too. He still held my hand. He made me go to Harry Heck's house, five miles from Waour yard and into the yard of Fred Lutz, where a man was sharpening a lawn mower. I watched him sharpen it and he let me help him.

Then he let me go with him to other places, where we sharpened more lawn mowers and knives. After awhile we came to the jail and sharpened Sheriff Ruch's knife. The man told me his name was Mr. Ryan, and that he lived 'way out in Colorado Springs.

When we left the jail we went to a saloon, where Mr. Ryan let me get two bottles of red soda water. I drank the soda water, and we waited around there about an hour. Then we went to the depot.

I did not want to go to the depot, but Mr. Ryan made me go. He held me tight, by the hand and would not let me go back. I was not afraid until he did not stop at the depot, He kept going on, and I was afraid. Bit he would not let me go back, and we walked two miles out of town.

He promised me he would give me a new suit of clothes, and candy, and he let me smoke all the cigarettes I wanted.

We were getting to set to Columbia, when my father got out in the road and pointed a revolver at Mr. Ryan and told him to turn me joose. And he did. And my father got out in the road and pointed a revolver at Mr. Ryan to get into the back seat, but my father made him get on the first the will me, and we watched Mr. Ryan until we got back to Waterloo and put him in jall.

Chief Kiely Says He Didn't; and Gillaspy Says He Had Nothing to Do With It.

The question in police and sporting circles today is. Who stopped the Sulliyan-O'Brier light, which was to have taken place at the West End Club Monday night?

Chief Kiely says he didn't, but that he supposes Acting Chief Gillaspy did.
Gillaspy says he didn't have anything to do with it; that the matter was in the ands of Captain Gaffney.
Captain Gaffney says he got orders to prevent the fight several days ago, when the Humane Society made its objections any kind in regard to it.

"I didn't have anything to do with it," he said. "It was all in Gillaspy's hands. I haven't taken up any of the office dudes since my return from Hot Springs; I have been too busy attending to breaking in the 500 new men on the force and in visiting the different substations. The office work was all in Gillaspy's hands." Meantime, the fight promoters and the police have got together on a new date for the fight.

The fact that Sullivan has an engagement to meet Hugo Kelley in a six-round bout in aKinsas City Thursday night prevented a date for the immediate future, and April 14 was decided upon as the date. Sullivan left for aKinsas City Tuesday to prepare for the Kelly bout. O'Brien and Charley Haughton will leave Wednesday to be spectators at the fight.

O'Brien packs Sullivan to Wefeat Kelly, but declares he will surely defeat Sullivan when they meet.

UNION DEFIES THE WESTERN JOCKEY CLUB'S NEW MOVE

The Ruling That Pacific Coast Horses Will Not Be Allowed to Race on the New St. Louis Track Will Have No Effect Here.

BY RICHARD D. WALSH. The Post-Dispatch's Turf Exper "The Union Jockey Club of St. Louis has nailed its colors to the mast. No com-bination of turf bodies in the Middle West or on the Pacific coast can restrain it from running the race meeting which it has ad-vertised." So says General Manager Carmody.

There is scarcely any probability of this in view of Mr. Belmont's telegram to Capt. Carmody dated Jan. 15 in which he said "the jockey club always assumes a posi tion of complete neutrality on questions of dates, etc." The contents of this telegram were wired to Mr. T. H. Williams, presi-dent of the new California Jockey Club who wired Capt. Carmody to Hot Springs as follows: "We will assume the same pos schaser of 220 Broadway, New York, was received.

Not particularly because Miss Schaser wanted a room, for any of the 2500 were at her service. Later in the season, her name might have been entered on a card and a number and a few mystic symbols placed after it, but for the first guest—Oh no!

Manager Stadtler realized the necessity of pleasing his first guest, so he held the assignment in abeyance. The clerk was told to look up the time cards and spend the time until the arrival of the New York train making his best toilet.

There was the register to be placed in commission and the bell boys uniforms to be brought out.

Worst of all, Miss Schaser's telegram did not give her complexion and with a hundred shades of wall paper and room furnishings, at his disposal, the clerk was unable to select the color to suit her hair and possible preference. For blondes, he had seven shades of light blue and 22 shades of cred, and for auburn-haired women, he had 33 shades of cream.

Miss Schaser, after she escapes from the army who will greet her to offer their services, will be allowed to express her preference and she will then be installed as the first guest of the Inside Inn, inside the Fair.

"You Who Are Warm Think Others So."

Let's project ourselves forward into the middle of this summer. It's a July day—and a record breaker for heat. You are cooking your dinner on a coal stove. Needless to say you are WARM! Quite naturally you suppose everybody else warm likewise. There's your mistake. There are thousands of women right here in St. Louis—this very day and hour—cooking their dinners, who are just as daintily cool as need be.

You wonder how that's possible. It's the easiest thing in the world. They Cook With Gas. That's the whole secret.

This is just to remind you that the hot days are coming on. Is your Gas Range Ready?
